

From the President...

Dear PSNM Friends —

Did everyone have fun at IAPS? Did you spend your whole art budget? The good news is if you didn't get to the vendor area or if you didn't get to buy everything you wanted, IAPS will be back in 2009 and this time they'll be at the Hotel Albuquerque in Old Town. Can't get more convenient than that. And better parking, too.

Terry Ludwig was kind enough to give PSNM a sample box of his pastels. We'll figure out a way to share them at the June meeting. And please send good wishes Terry's way: he and his daughter were in a roll over wreck coming to IAPS. His daughter was expecting, and the baby was lost. We owe Terry our thanks for being so supportive and our sympathy for his loss.

Get ready to jury the slides/digitals for the VISIONS Show at our meeting. This will be an education for any of you who have never been exposed to how a show is juried. You will understand that it is nothing personal and you should never have hurt feelings over the results. A real eye-opener.

Here's a thought for today:
You never outgrow drawing. It's so fundamental to everything...
Debra Groesser

Monthly Meeting at Albuquerque Museum

Saturday, June 9, 10am

VISIONS Voting

A "Jury of our Peers", will view the 138 paintings submitted by 48 artists for the VISIONS Show, which opens on August 10 at the Mark Zoeller Studio/Gallery in Santa Fe. All PSNM members present at this meeting will be able to cast a ballot to vote on their choices for inclusion in the show.

OUTSTANDING OPPORTUNITY!

Thanks to the efforts of Paula O'Neil, the Publicity Chair for our National Show, PSNM has been offered a greatly reduced price for a special advertising section in the November 2007 issue of Southwest Art!

Each page in this section will have a "Pastel Society of New Mexico" header and fractional page full-color ads for individual PSNM members. It will also advertise our National Show, with dates, location and web site.

Besides national exposure, members who place an ad will get the following benefits:

- Southwest Art will post and promote the entire special section on its web site for 3 full months.
- The "online" ad will include a free live link to the PSNM web site.

Rates/ Production: 1/9 page - $265; 2/9 page - $530; 1/6 page - $398; $2384 for a full page (7 1/2 w x 9 7/8 h). These rates apply only if there are enough participants to fill two pages, with PSNM using one of the spots.

PSNM will collect the digital images and create the ad layout, listing each artist's name, title of painting, web site, or contact info.

A deposit of 1/2 your ad cost, payable to PSNM, is needed no later than June 30th, 2007. Mail to: PSNM, PO Box 3571, Albuquerque, NM 87910. Balance due by August 1st, 2007.

To reserve a space, or for more details, contact Paula O'Neil, National Show Publicity Chair: Oneil5052@msn.com or call 505-832-5052.

MasterWorks

Once again pastels garnered praise for their excellent quality. William Hook, this year's judge, commented, "I am very impressed... Pastel always has such a broad range, some look like pastels, some look like oils. I'm astonished that the pastels have as much detail as these do."

On the Best of Show painting by Jane Mclean: "I don't usually choose this type of work, but it is so well done, it is an obvious choice. The first thing that caught my eye was the cup, it's angled, and the fabric, you can feel the sizing, it's very believable. The use of light in the background accentuates the subject. It's really a pretty, pretty piece, fabulous craftsmanship."

In General: "I tend to get fixed on mistakes. I'd like a piece, but there is something that stops me. Sometimes the mistakes throw me off. However, sometimes the mistakes actually help the art. I'd rather see a wrong paint stroke executed with confidence, than a correct stroke put on without the weight of experience. I'd rather go beyond the lines than be held back by too much timidity. I look for individuality. I'm drawn to the unexpected, to the risk takers.

There are many good works here that won't get awards. All the participants should be honored to be here, all of them narrowly missed getting an awards."
